Capt. Fornoff went through Estancia Monday evening on his way to Corona. They had a knife and pistol duel there, which from reports was a bad affair.

Mr. Hattington, of Grove Center, Kentucky, arrived Friday on a tour of inspection, with a view to locating in the Estancia Valley. Still there is room for more.

D. B. Morrill returned on Tuesday from a visit to his mother in Waco, Texas. He reports his mother in excellent health. This was his first visit home in several years.

Miss Lucile Fielder, assistant postmistress has been confined to her room a couple of days this week on account of illness. Forst mason is assisting in the postoffice in her stead.

You would hardly believe it, but it is a fact, that the merchants of Estancia have customers that come all the way from Santa Fe to buy goods. Reasonable prices, persistent advertising, and courteous treatment tell the story.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bivins a girl baby, Thursday noon, January 6th. The little one lived only about ten hours, and passed away. The burial took place Friday. The News and the whole community sympathize with the afflicted parents.

A report from the New Home school house says that at the meeting last Sunday, with good audiences both morning and evening, about 25 persons expressed a desire to lead a better life. This is very encouraging to all, especially to Rev. Mr. Lyttle, who conducted the services.

A series of questions relating to subjects before congress was received here recently requesting answers as to the views of the people concerning said subjects, viz: Conservation, Ship Subsidy, Central Bank, Federal Incorporation for Interstate Common Carriers, and as to the tariff and the admission of raw material free of duty. The queries were sent by Senator Gore of Oklahoma.
